WEST BOYLSTON HIGH SCHOOL

WEBO AWARD

WELCOME TO YOUR 2014 LION'S PRIDE YEARBOOK

...on the cutting edge of technology...

- To witness the magic of your front cover:

1. Install the free "Aurasma" app on your internet connected ipad, ipod, iphone, android, etc. (The icon looks like a purple A/Triangle)
2. Launch the Aurasma app.
3. Swipe through the tutorial and start-up screens. When you get to the last screen you will be asked to log in to an existing account or create a new one. You do not need to set up an account. Instead, select skip from the bottom corner of your screen.
4. You can allow Aurasma to use your current location or not. This does not influence how it operates to view your cover.
5. Tap the menu button (the small Aurasma "A" symbol on the bottom-center of your screen)
6. Tap the search button (magnifying glass icon) and search for West Boylston.
7. Tap the West Boylston High School to see the detailed channel page
8. Tap Follow to change it to "following"
9. With your yearbook in hand, tap the viewfinder button (the 4 corners looking like a square) to scan the front of your yearbook, and watch the magic happen.

- To see the videos embedded throughout your book, you will need two apps.

The first app is called "scan". It is a free app with a red square whose inside has four corners looking like a square. Use this app to scan the QR Codes that are hidden in various places throughout your yearbook. The QR codes will take you to our private youtube channel, where you will be able to watch videos.

The second app can be used in the world news section to view videos. This app is called Walsworth 3D. It is a red, white and blue icon that says "Yearbook 3D". Where you see the same icon, you can scan it using this app to watch videos made by Walsworth, our yearbook publishing company.

Now Showing... WB: Take '14!

After the tedious journey from the earliest days of elementary school and through the final ones of high school, the Class of 2014 has made it to their closing scene. Everyone must have experienced in some way or another the harsh aspects of the film business: "scene retakes," "not landing the part," "bad publicity," and much more. But now, those hardships are about to end. These students finally get to be the superstars many of them have yearned to be. This class, and even this school, is overloaded with different and remarkable talents from all walks of life. It's an honor that it's seen and experienced by people everyday because, without a doubt, the students of West Boylston High School are inspiring. Seniors: thank you for the mark you have left on this community. Although you may not have guessed it, your class has been one for others to look up to for years. The rest of the teachers and students cherish their time with you, and they are ready to help you leap into your new world of "show business." Underclassmen: this may have not been your special year, but never stop thinking that you aren't special. Without you, this school would not live up to its greatness. You all are stars. Now, let's get the camera rolling! Lights, camera.... Action!

And The Oscar Goes To...

MS. MONTUORI

Ms. Montuori, for the past four years you have been more than just a teacher to the class of 2014. You have been a mentor, a helper, a friend! Your effervescent and proactive personality has shined throughout these hallways and brightened the days of many students in some way. You are always first in line to give assistance to anybody who needs it.Your memory has sunk into the minds of these kids, and they promise to never forget you. The class of 2014 thanks you greatly, and they wish YOU the best of luck in YOUR future. Congratulations, Ms. Montuori! Here's to you!

Letter from Mr. Murphy

To the Class of 2014:

Graduation has finally arrived and your days as West Boylston Lions are coming to an end. How fast the four years have passed and how far you've come from your first days as nervous little freshman. The individual and collective growth in this class has been nothing short of amazing.

During your career at WB you've been exposed to teaching and learning outside the classroom through the lessons taught in our themes. You have learned how bullying and harassing behaviors are hurtful and being kind is the WB way. As a result we have implemented several strategies and protocols to ensure all our students and staff are safe and comfortable. In your sophomore year the message was "Pay It Forward" and community service was the focus. The theme generated the "In It to End It" campaign to support the American Cancer Society and scholarships for students who have lost parents to cancer. Your junior year saw the theme of "Resilience" promoted. In student run workshops you developed strategies for dealing with life's struggles that was made into a PowerPoint presentation sent home to all WB families. Finally, your senior year has seen several great presentations on the theme of "Courage". The assemblies with the Assistant Principal and student who overcame bullying, Team Hoyt which demonstrated how productive people with handicaps can be, and the Drama performance this winter called "Irena's Vow" demonstrated true courage. They were all inspirational.

The Class of 2014 has had many successes and triumphs in academics, athletics, the arts, and through your generous volunteering of your time. We wish you all the same success in the next chapters of your lives whether it involves college, the military, or in the work force. Take the lessons learned each year and apply them to your character. Be kind to each other, volunteer your time for those in need, be strong when life gets hard, and through it all be brave enough to face whatever challenges life sends your way. If you can follow those principals, you will build the life of your dreams and make the world a better place for everyone.

Congratulations and best wishes from all of the staff and students at WB!

"Love the life you live, and live the life you love"

Wow, it seems just yesterday I was at orientation in Major Edwards Elementary School. We have come so far as a class and as individuals. I just want to thank my parents for all they have done throughout the years whether its class dues or a quick pep talk, it means the world. Of course my brothers have always been there for me rooting me on even if they are away at college, but not to worry; I still had Lilo. I wouldn't change my family for the world, they are truly the best of the best. I have also had some pretty cool friends to share this experience with and it wouldn't be the same without them: Erin F., Olivia P., Audrey C., Courtney R., Celeste B., Tyler A., Andrew M., Michaela H., and of course the cross country team. Thank you for making these four years the best so far, and may many more come!

"One day, in retrospect, the years of struggle will strike you as the most beautiful." -Sigmund Freud

I can't believe its already senior year! I remember my first day here, during sophomore year in Mrs. Somma's drama class. We had so much fun in that class and all of the productions I've been in here. I'm going to miss eating lunch with my friends everyday, play rehearsals and those last minute warm-ups before the show. My experience here wouldn't have been the same without the greatest friends in the world, Sophie, Meredith, Leah, Allison, Mckenzie, and so many more that I don't have room to name you all! I love you guys and good luck to those you headed into your senior year. I will never forget all of our fun afternoons in the auditorium, singing, dancing, and just having a great time. You guys are the best! I don't know what I'd do without you, I'll miss you all!

Coming to West Boylston was the best thing that ever happened to me. I have made friendships that will last a lifetime. I have grown to be someone I never thought I could be. High school has been full of new experiences, hard work, late nights, amazing people, and difficult challenges. I could not have made it without a strong support system.Thank you mom, for being there for me even though you are so far away. Thank you Maddie, for being the greatest sister I could ask for. Thank you friends, for supporting me always and embracing my craziness. Thank you soccer girls, for showing me I can do anything I set my mind to, and that a soccer family is the best family anyone could ask for. I love this school, this town, and the people in it. I cannot wait to into the world and make a difference; thank you, WB, for everything.

Wow, where do I begin? I can't believe that I'm a senior. As many people have told before me, high school really does go quickly. First and foremost, I'd like to thank my parents for being there for me over the years. You guys are the best, and I love you more than words can express. I also want to thank my friends Kelsey, Rachel, Tess, Natasha, and Baylee. I'm going to miss you guys when we go to college, but I love you all. To Katie, Yvonne, Abby, Tyler, and Kali, good luck next year. I believe in you guys. I also want to thank my friends that have graduated over the years. Even though you can't read this, you made high school so much better. As our four years together come to a close, I'd like to thank my class and I'd also like to wish everyone the best of luck for the future. Congratulations guys, we made it.

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

I've heard a lot of people talk about how excited they are to get out of West Boylston because it's such a small town with "nothing to do" and "lots of annoying people." But personally, I love WEBO – always have, and always will. I honestly love this school so much and I have thoroughly enjoyed the twelve years I've spent here. I know I will always look back fondly on my high school experience because of all the amazing memories I've made at WBHS. I've studied under incredible teachers and I've made friends that will last a life time. Between crying from laughter at lunch, joining a new family in PAW, play comps, spontaneously bursting into song in APUSH, nerf gun assassin games, being sassy in AP Bio, freezing my butt off with Alan, skittle adventures, Apocalyptic Narwhals, GS-tas, summer nights at the park, Baylee's pool parties, Cole parties, and a million other fun times, how could I possibly not love WEBO? A special shout out to the Cole party gang, my homies from theater, my closest friends (you know who you are), and everyone from Mrs. Howard's "favorite" AP Bio class! So yes, I do love WEBO, but even I'm excited for what's yet to come!

I don't know how to start this but here I go. My four years at WB have been interesting with it's ups and downs. I want thank the staff here for all your help. Wiley for getting me through his english class. Mrs.Somma for believing in me even though I made her think I couldn't read. I want to thank my boys Mike Maciag, Spiro, McCullough, Anthony Surabian, Matt Carbonneau and Kyle Bolivar I'll always have your back. I would also like to thank my parents for pushing me through school.I'll never forget my years here at WB best of luck to the class of 2014 hope the real world treats you right.

"There's always a bigger fish." ~ Liam Neeson.

I remember four years ago, the summer before high school I was not excited at all. I was afraid time would go by too slow, and it would just be torture. Now, seeing how fast these years went by, I wish I could have slowed myself down to enjoy my time. I guess I'm lucky, I had a fast and easy high school career, and I owe that to my "Classy" class of 2014. I also have to thank the teachers who made my time here effective, and those who made me feel comfortable.

My friends also played a big part in the smoothness of my time here. I really need to thank Natasha, she was always there, always having my back and giving me support. She was always there to listen to me complain.. So thank you! Even though I am sad that this experience is over, I am very excited for what lies ahead. Congratulations Class of 2014!!!

Our High School Years

We have grown since middle school entering freshman year thinking "we're cool"
Who would have thought we'd be here on graduation day grinning from ear to ear.
It is time for us to face our lives ahead
even though it's something we might dread
This year was our time to shine
I think it all turned out just fine.
Never forget the laughs we shared and the friendships that were repaired
We will look back on these years and remember our awesome peers.
Even though high school was tough
we made it through sure enough.
We are the class of 2014!
We know how to make the scene!

I would like to thank all my family and friends for helping me through these past four years. A special shout out goes to the three most important people in my life. My mother has been so supportive and helpful, I don't know what i would do without her. My sister has been such a great friend throughout my high school years, despite the distance between us. Last but not least,Tyler Supernor has been my best friend since 8th grade and has gotten me through the hardest times. I love these people more than anything in the entire world. Also, I'll always remember my soccer sisters who are like a second family to me. I'm so glad that ill be able to look back at my high school years and remember these beautiful people. I love you all so much.

Finally done! It's so weird to think we're finally the ones to graduate. I wouldn't have probably made it without my parents, sisters, and friends; thank you all so much for the support you've given me throughout the years. Liv, Courtney, Abby- my number ones. The adventures we find ourselves into are crazy and I'm so excited to see what the future has in store for us. Thank you to my team, Greenwood Swimming. You guys are my second family and have made these last 2 years the best, from our crazy nights in Florida to the support in and out of the pool. Words can't even begin to explain how I feel writing this. All I can say is wow, we did it. We're graduating. Through all the difficult classes and college application stress, our class is leaving here with the brightest futures ahead of us. I personally wouldn't have been able to get through high school without my friends and family. My parents, Todd, and Kristi have been so supportive of me through everything. I would also like to thank the true few I had at WBHS for being the greatest people I'd ever want to spend senior year with. My experience here made me find myself. I claimed straight edge, discovered my dreams, and worked to be the greatest person I can be. So, thank you, class of 2014, for being some of the most amazing people I will ever meet. Along the way
Through the years
We've grown much stronger
Shedding fewer tears
Along the way
We've gained best friends
Whom we argue and laugh with
Our fun never ends
Along the way
We regret things we've said
But those are the things
That grew wisdom in our head

Wow. I know this is a very generic thing to say, but when people say that the 4 years you spend in high school pass by very quickly, they weren't kidding. To all the underclassmen who still have to go through High School: just know that one day, sooner than you think, you'll be writing your senior write up and wondering where all the time has gone. Take everything one-step at a time, enjoy and learn from everything. To all my friends (2nd family), thank you guys for all the laughs, car talks, political talks and amazing memories. You guys are the best. To my parents, thank you for always pushing me to do and be my best, teaching me to take risks and take every opportunity that is thrown at me. To my siblings; LD and RJ thank you for everything. Through thick and thin you guys were there. You two are the best brothers a girl could ask for. Last but certainly not least, to the class of 2014. I still can't believe that senior year is finally here! After four long years in this school, our time here is almost up, but I find myself wishing that I could stay just a little bit longer! I'm excited to graduate and move on to bigger things in life, but I will never forget my time here at West Boylston and all of the amazing people I've met. High school has been a stressful and, at times, exhausting, experience, but it was all worth it in the end. I'd like to thank my parents for their constant love and support - I couldn't have made it this far without you. To my sister Erin - these next four years are going to fly by, make the most of them. High school will be over before you know it! To my friends - you guys keep me sane and always know how to make me laugh. I hope we always stay in touch! To the Class of 2014 - I wish you all the best of luck. We've made it!

Looking back on the years, high school was great, truly the best years of my life. I met so many people in the past 4 years, and everyone I know helped me so much. As a freshman and sophomore, I thought I couldn't wait to get out of school, but now that senior year is here... I don't want to leave.
Mom, Dad, you helped me so much, thank you for pushing me to do my best, all of my friends, you guys were always there for me, KS, WP, GS, NS, MH, WF, SS, I could go on forever, if I didn't name you I'm sorry, you know you belong in that list. To the girlfriends I've had in the past 4 years, I thank you so much, you were there when I needed you the most, and more, you showed so much support for me... thank you. Teachers, you also helped me, pushed me, and formed me into who I am now. High school wouldn't have been possible alone, every one of you brought me to this point in my life.
Thank you all.

I can't believe senior year has finally come, it seems too good to be true. I am really going to miss this school and everyone in it. First I would like to thank my dad for always helping me with my homework. Also for taking all of the pictures from over the years. It is fun to look back at so many memories. Next I would like to thank my mom. Thanks for cheering me on at EVERY game I had, even when it was only just a scrimmage! You have always inspired me to do my best and to never give up. Kim, my favorite aunt, thanks for taking me on all the fun vacations we go on together. I can always look forward to having a great time with you! Gram, thanks for all the memories and especially for taking me to see Wicked! Also Thanks to the O'Malley's, and the rest of my aunts and uncles for all the fun times! And lastly Marissa, thanks for being a real pain.... But I still love ya anyway! I couldn't have done it without everyone's help. Congratulations class of 2014, and good luck in the future!!

High school, for me, wasn't about preparing for college, it was about growing as a person. I've learned so many lessons throughout the past 17 years, but the hardest were the ones I learned during high school. I can leave school this year, not necessarily knowing where I'm going, but knowing that I've become a person that I'm proud to be. I want to thank X.P., and M.M. and L.P. for making these past two years a little easier for me.

Throughout high school, I have had many stressful nights working on projects and completing school work. I have had to work hard to make sure that I could pass different classes. However, if I had had to say whether I had more bad times or good times, I would definitely pick the latter. High school has been a blast for me. I have had a great time all four years and, though I'll miss it, I am excited to graduate and move out into the world.

To my family, thanks for all your love, support and enthusiasm. We've seen the world together and it has been so much fun.

Sonja...you're the best!

Kelly...I miss you! Thanks for making my junior year so fantastic.

And thanks to all my friends in and out of WB. It's hard to believe it's time to move on but I'm ready.

Good luck to everyone!

These past four years have been absolutely incredible. I've had the opportunity to meet some amazing people, and I've had experiences that I'll remember forever. I can't believe how fast the time has flown by (it seems like just yesterday that I started this journey we call high school), but if I was given the chance to do it all over again, I wouldn't change a thing. Thank you to the people who have been with me every step of the way, especially my parents for their love and support, and for believing in me no matter what. I couldn't have done it without you. To my friends, Alan, Kelsey, Tess, and Natasha: you guys are fabulous. Thank you for all the laughs, unforgettable memories, and some of the best times of my life. I'll miss everyone at West Boylston so much, but I know this isn't the end, it's just the beginning. I'm excited for what the future holds, but I'll never forget the people or the places that have helped me become the person I am today. Congratulations to the Class of 2014. We did it!

It is within my short lifetime that I have learned of four fundamental truths that govern a harmonious being's mind:

1. One must learn from both friend and foe
2. Wisdom is not only a matter of experience, but a willingness to leave behind passive preconceptions and expand the mind.
3. One must humble themselves to the position of student all their life.
4. Know both love and hate; anger and tranquility; then you must master them..

It is through these fundamental ideals that one may begin to seek their truth and come to a unique inner peace that all beings crave..

Well, we've finally made it! It's been a long four years but we're finally moving on with our lives. Coming into the school district as a freshman was a bit difficult for me, being the new kid and all. But all that passed pretty quickly and we've moved on. I feel as though I have succeeded through West Boylston High; I won't lie and tell you that I loved school and going to classes, but I have successfully made it through these four years. I have to say that considering our school doesn't offer any trades or shop classes, the internship program was one of the best choices I made. It gave me a very open opportunity to go out and be involved in the workforce first-hand. A big thank-you to Mr. Gustafson for making that possible for us all. Thank you to all the teachers, administration and staff members who made this possible for us.

We made it, class of 2014. We finally made it to the beginning of our lives.Thanks to my family; without you I wouldn't be here today. Caine and Luke, you guys are awesome. Don't change. Mom, you are my hero. Alan, you don't know how wonderful you are. Makenzie, fam(ily). Abby Rose, you are my best friend ever. NBW KB SN AB TA MS NP CC RL and so many others have all made these past four years worth it. I can't thank you all enough. All of you have left such a mark on my life. TC, you have made me a better person. I love you all to infinity and beyond. I wish every single member of 2014 the best of luck in life. I would like to thank all the people that believed in me! They have all helped me to see how great life can be and let me live it to my fullest. My friends are my life! They are all great people who deserve a shout out! My teachers have also aided me into becoming the successful person I am. My good friends at Habitat for Humanity have been fantastic to me and. I thank you too! Finally, I would like to thank my mother and my grandmother who have given me experiences that no one else could ever dream to. Thank you all so much! My high school career would not have been the same if I hadn't had the opportunities that my mother and grandmother provided me, including both National Youth Leadership Forums on Medicine and National Security. These forums were great character and leadership builders and the people I met are still good friends of mine. Habitat for Humanity has been a great organization to partake in. It has also built my character and leadership skills higher than ever before. The people I have met there will be part of my family forever. Thank you all for giving me the oppurtunity to make my life the best it can be.

My message is one that I hope will touch everyone that reads it. I at first was troubled by the idea of moving to West Boylston and reluctant to come to this school. Not because I didn't like this town but because I'd miss my old teachers and friends. I've realized however, that this was the best decision my family could have ever made. The people here are really nice and friendly and this school is refreshingly studious and fun. I've made a few really good friends already and love all my classes and teachers. I will take all that I learn in this school with me along my infinite journey of knowledge, wisdom and adventure. I appreciate most importantly, the love, guidance and wisdom of my parents and owe all my growth and success to them, for I wouldn't be here in this ambitious and determined state without them. Lastly, I wish the best of luck to all my peers; friends and acquaintances alike.

Its amazing to think that just five short years ago I was a new kid to this school scared of everything and the world. Now as I have grow up I have made the best friends in the world, I'd like to say thanks to my best friend Culls, Spiro, Adam, and Musa, you guys have been there through everything. Thinking about being a senior is kind of a crazy thing sometimes I just thought this year would never come. Also I'd like to thank my teachers for pushing me throughout the years to strive to be my best. To my parents: thank you for everything you have done over the years; it has meant so much. I'm going to miss high school but am excited to start a new chapter in my life, And to the underclassmen have fun next year!

The last four years have definitely dragged on, but it's still pretty hard to believe that high school's over and we're out of here. Finally! I wish I could go on about how much I loved high school but that would be a lie; I'm so ready to move forward and start the next chapter of my life. Even though I wasn't wicked fond of high school, I got a lot out of my time here and I've had some great experiences along the way. I never would have lasted without the support of my best friends and family and I can't thank you all enough for everything you've done for me and helped me through. Audrey and Abby, thank you both for being there no matter what and for making every day a blast – even when we all thought we were losing our minds. Alyssa, you'll always be a punk but you're my favorite one and I hope you have the time of your life as you start high school; make the most of these years :) Mum and Dad, thank you for believing in me always; I love you guys to the moon and back.

Since I've spent my entire life in West Boylston, I've definitely came to make some lifelong friends, and I've had some amazing teachers throughout school. I'd like to give a shout out to Mr. Palmer for being my favorite teacher all throughout middle school and being an awesome science teacher. I'd also like to thank all of my high school teachers for being great influences and for being there to help me when I needed it. Most importantly, i need to thank my friends and family for putting up with my nonsense, and for just being amazing people. I love all of you, and I'm so happy that we'll have all of our memories for the rest of our lives. Now I have to give a shout out to my Mom and Dad for motivating me and making me the person I am today, I'm so grateful to have both of you. Another person who I need to thank for being there for me and loving me as much as she does is my girlfriend, Ashley Jankowski. But the person who I feel shaped my childhood, and who I am today the most is Michael "Bad Daddy" Fradsham. Love you bro. Wow, where did the time go? It feels like just yesterday I was walking through the doors of WBHS for the first time. I didn't know anyone from the school then, but now, leaving the school, I know some of the most amazing people I've ever met. I feel like I'm really going to miss the place, and yet I have that senior mentality of "GET OUT OF HERE QUICKLY"! I'll always be a Lion however, and I shall carry the spirit of Webo with me wherever I go! I don't know how life will be after WBHS. Well, I know I'm going to get a lot more sleep. And the WEBO Award Goes to...

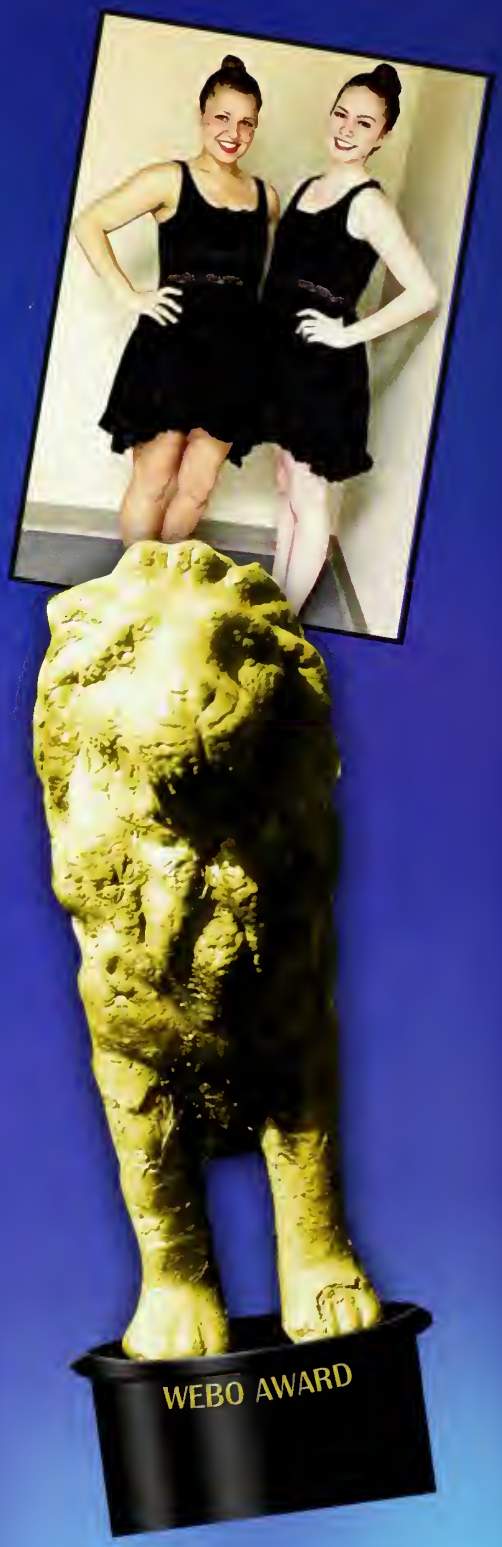
Check out what your seniors have been doing this year, and how proud of them we are for doing it!

The WEBO AWARD is a very prestigious award, given only to those who demonstrate TALENT! All of winners definitely have tons of talent! DETERMINATION! You can see it in the winners as they each participate in their award winning activities. And of course, COURAGE! These winners have the courage to put themselves out there and do what they love! Way to go guys!

And the WEBO goes to...

Michelle Wronski!!!

Michelle has been dancing at Diane Kelley Dance Studio for eleven years now, and she has certainly climbed up the ladder. She works tirelessly in styles ranging from Hip Hop to Ballet three days a week for sometimes up to 12 hours! She presents her group and solo performances at competitions across the country, including New York City, Las Vegas, and Hollywood, FL. "I love to dance," Michelle says, "because it's helped me overcome so much hardship. It's taught me how to be confident, how to manage time wisely, how to be committed, and a lot about self-discipline. It's my passion." Let's all give it up for Michelle!!



And the WEBO goes to...

Rachel Langhill!!!

Almost two years ago, Rachel was selected to represent the Class of 2014 at the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership (HOBY) Seminar. Since then, she has been working with student leaders all over the state to tackle several community service projects such as "Christmas in the City," "Life is Good" Festival, and her favorite Special Olympics Event in the summer. For one weekend in the summer, she and 200 other volunteers work with 500+ Special Olympic athletes. They help run the games and ensure that everyone participating is having a blast. "The time commitment is not nearly as important as the emotional dedication," Rachel added, "Everyone at this event genuinely wants to be there... To see everyone like that, you realize what a big different a short weekend can make in so many lives - including my own." Congratulations on your achievements, Rachel!

And the WEBO goes to...

CHRIS LEAVITT!!!

Chris is the Head Volunteer at Habitat for Humanity ReStore. Spending up to 16 hours per school week volunteering, he collects donations, organizes and participates in charity events, and works as floor manager. He has been recognized as volunteer of the month twice and has consecutively been recognized for top five most volunteer hours in a month. Heading toward his second year volunteering, Chris says, "I love interacting with community members, having a great family relationship with fellow staff and volunteers, and just having that feeling of helping others." Go Chris!

And the WEBO goes to...

HEATHER COTTER!!!

Heather has been figure skating since she was two-years-old. That's right, she's been skating for 16 years! Skating is a huge time commitment for Heather, who usually spends six hours a week at the rink. She is at a Junior freestyle level, and she only has one level to pass until she completes all of the levels available. Heather used to be an ice dancer as well. With her partner, Heather qualified for Sectionals and completed all of her tests up until the intermediate level. She says, "Figure Skating is what I'm passionate about. It is my comfort and what I love doing most." Great work Heather!

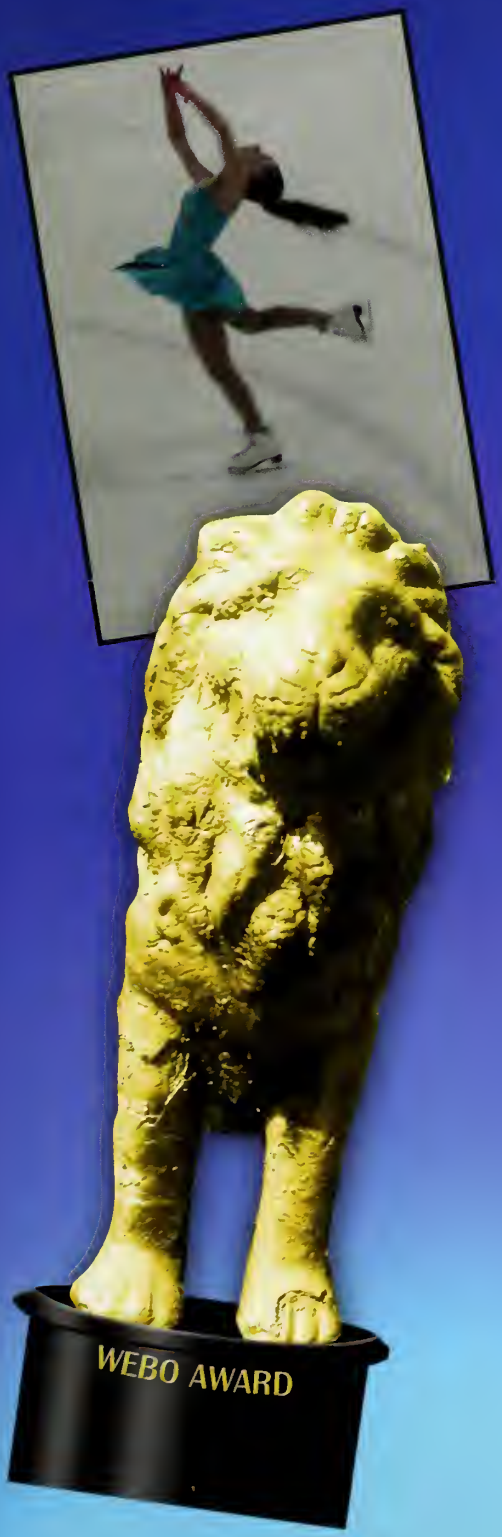
And the WEBO goes to...

NATASHA BOATENG - WILSON!!!

For the past five years, Natasha has been working as a Sunday School teacher at her church in town. She works with children between the ages of two and five about classic lessons and values of the Bible. She takes three hours out of every Sunday to teach the little ones. "I love teaching them not only how to be good Christians," Natasha told us, "but also how to be good people." It's refreshing to know that there are people out there who are truly overjoyed by helping kids. Congratulations, Natasha! We're proud of you!

And the WEBO goes to...

JULIE BARDON!!!



Julie is a competitive figure skater at the Boston Metro-West's Skating Club. She has been skating for five years and has won over fifteen medals and passed several USFS skating tests. She commits over five hours a week to skating, and even more when she is preparing for a test or competition. "Skating is something that I can't live without," Julie says, "Spinning and jumping on the ice is different than anything I've ever done. It drives me to do my best." We can always count on you to do your best, Julie! Nice job!

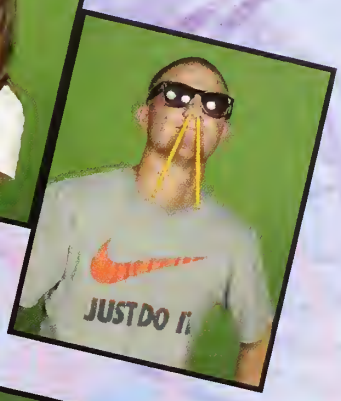
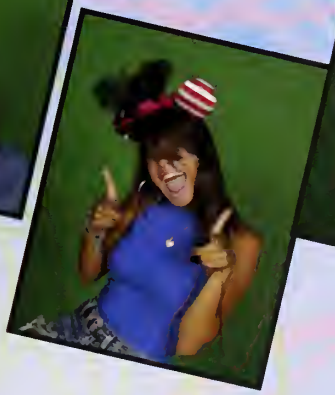
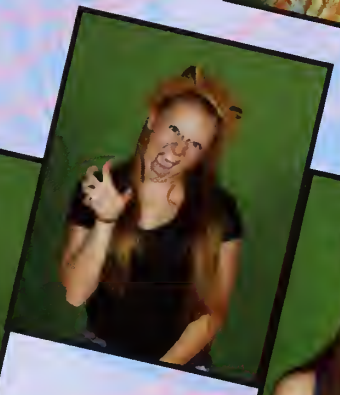
Best Comedic Actors







Senior Wills

Caroline Delaney

I, Caroline Delaney, leave Al and Cal to Ms. DeRosa, my extra lunch to RJ, and LD my knowledge on everything I learned throughout high school. I also leave Joe DeBonis my sassy comments.

Makayla Michalowski

I, Makayla Michalowski, would like to leave Erika Smith my Batting Skills in softball.

Jessica Mulhearn

I leave Sophie Mulhearn the fun of high school. Have a good time!

I leave Molly O'Connor a book just because.

Olivia Paige

I leave Alyssa Paige the best of luck in starting high school, I leave Yvonne Corcoran unlimited cake pops and trips to Starbucks. I leave Kyle White a pen in environmental science. To the rest of the juniors - don't totally beat yourself up about college stuff, but take it seriously and make the most of your senior year!

Jonathan Vanderburgh

I, Jonathan Vanderburgh, leave my wisdom to Nick Irving. I also leave my sweet dance moves to Nick Irving. I leave my tales of awesomeness to all who dare to hear them. I leave my locker to whoever gets it next year.

Gabriel Smith

For my senior will I leave behind the wonderful moments I had here at West Boylston, with my great teachers and friends.

McKenzie Dano

McKenzie Dano leaves the library mural to the next generations to look upon and admire. I also leave to my friends in the lower grades and even the teachers I've been with, the good memories of me they have, except for the bad, they have to give those back.

Spiro Perdikomatis

I leave my horse stables to Derek Jakubiak (trueee). I leave my bounce and dunking to Max O'Day. I leave my best dress to Tyler Peters and Derek Jakubiak. I leave my cuteness to Alec Tata and Tom Silva. I leave my savage to Anthony Maino. I leave my music to the ball team (sauad!!) I leave Tim my pick up lines on girls.

Joshua Belsito

I leave my respect and gratitude to all the teachers that treated me like an intelectual and not just a slacker.

Lexi Belezos

I'd like to leave my soccer babes all the laughs at practice & the best feeling of beating Tahanto ;) my SB linds my love & to Erin & Amanda good luck as captain ilysm! To Derek my phone because you love to change the password & the sunrise at sleepovers & Mitchell the best bf award and thanks for always being there! To Timmy all the car rides, back rubs &laughs we've been through, my bff <3 & to Tor&han my heart forever&ever ily guys. &to everyone else, enjoy senior year without any stresses!

Rachel Langhill

I, Rachel Langhill, leave Abby Colangelo my sense of humor that nobody else appreciates even though we're actually really funny people.

Julie Bardon

I, Julie, leave Sophie and Meredith my hyper-ness, as well as my over excited-ness for our ice skating outings. I leave Meredith my artistic-ness, even though she is already a fabulous artist. I leave Sophie my curiousness and all the words I tend to make up when there is not a word for what I mean to say. I also wish to leave all of my friends my over-abounding joy and my smile, because everything in life is better if you just smile.

Tess Blodgett

I, Celeste Blodgett, would like to leave the following things in my senior will: 1. My passion for art and music to the beautiful and pure-hearted Gabrielle Hamel. 2. My curiosity to try new things (especially fun vegetarian food), lots of warm hugs for the days when she is cold at work, and of course my brownie in a mug recipe, to Ari Muhlidis. 3. My passion for literature and learning to future seniors of Mr. G's English 12 class... good luck and never give up ;) 4. To the future wearer of the lion costume, I leave my school spirit.

Natasha Boateng-Wilson

I leave to Gabby Hamel all my love and our friendship! I leave my love for Beyonce to Joe DeBonis, and my toxic sparkle to Ms. DeRosa

Halley Cranston

I, Halley Cranston, would like to leave Erin Fleming & Amanda Bensonmy captain position in soccer; the whole rest of next season varsity soccer team a great season with lots of laughs & unforgettable memories oh & my header goals off corner kicks against Tahanto, will miss you all; the future of the soccer and basketball teams to my fav Sarah Maino; Tim Mercier my car keys, our locker & my love forever; & Justin Cranston my great memories in high school, enjoy every second of it.

Abigail Baker

I, Abby Baker, leave Erin Fleming Dunkie Friday and the memory of waiting for the bus every morning. I also leave Katie McKeon and Parker O'Donnell long run adventures during track season.

Michelle Wronski

I would like to leave Max the song Latch by Disclosure since we jammed to that together way before it went on the radio. Nat, I'm not leaving you anything because I would give you my house or my kidney or something but that's taking it too far

Makenzie Holm

Lucia: Missions and McDonald French Fries
Bridget and Alexis: My "scary" attitude
Cheer Team: The profs and sparkles with the determination!
Ashlet Smith: My stunt group
Kristin Taylor: My bailey bows
Madison Phillips and Arianna Muhlidis: My black pom-poms

Alan Blunt

I, Alan Blunt, leave Mrs. Tetler memories of my sass, Yvonne Corcoran with a gallon of Passion Iced Tea Lemonade from Starbucks, Madame fond memories of me attempting to learn French, Katie McKeon my Candy Crush scores, Abby Colangelo with my 50 cents tip at Shannon's, Natalie Phelps with my heart and soul, Mrs. Montouri with my AP Comp manuscript, and Kali Flibbert with my amazing taste in music.

Mariah Michalowski

I, Mariah Michalowski, would like to leave Katie Gauthier my position and all of my assists in soccer; Amanda Benson my warm up line; Tori O'Connor my sarcasm and sass; and Eric Michalowski the Michalowski legacy.

LION

By Celeste Blodgett

The best part about being school mascot is not the smelly mask or kids yanking the worn tail that trails behind me; the best part of being "Lion" is being part of something bigger than myself; contributing to my community the best way possible. I dance and act completely ridiculous in a twenty-year old sweaty lion suit, engaging the crowd, lifting spirits, inspiring smiles.

Our West Boylston football team is not known for height, strength, or talent. We are known for heart. The hearts of our team and small-town big-hearted community are why we won the State Championship, first time since 1982. My job is simple: support my team, make fans smile, symbolize my school. I bring Lion to life: jumping, shaking pom poms, fist pumping before the stands. Kids run to me for hugs, chasing me around roaring. I high-five fans, make students laugh, do push-ups at each touchdown, despite their difficulty in my top-heavy costume. Inside the furry skin, peering through teeth, I'm not Tess, I'm Lion. It is not about me, it is about being the spirit of West Boylston.

Drenched in sweat, my vision limited, I fall; but someone always dusts me off. Playoff bus rides, numb extremities during snowy games, and hydrating via Lion's screened mouth to conceal my identity are now memories. When the big game was won the whole town embraced me. I will forever remember, win or lose, strength of heart reigned that fall.

TRASH
By Natatsha Boateng-Wilson

In this world, we are surrounded by people who pretend to love and care, just to use us, and when they're done,
we're thrown in the trash, left on the curb,
left to rot on the street.
Treated as if we have no hearts, no emotions, no feelings.
We are puppets of those around us, and when one of our strings break, and control is limited, chaos and fear spreads through and we're hunted like wild antelope,
going through a chase that never ends
until we are found and killed.

We are the slaves
with no use other than to serve.
We serve our families, friends,
even those we don't know.
There are not enough hours in the day to care for the masses and care for ourselves.
We are secondary to all.

I propose we change this.
We can become the rescuers.
Together, we can change the system that oppresses and keeps us from being individuals.
The system that brings nothing but suffering and misery and pain.
We need to end the pain.
We need to bring about equality in this world, or we'll be destined for nothing but a future of pain

WHAT WE NEED
By Alan Blunt

Water
Food
Clothes
What we need to physically survive

Shelter
A bed
A shower
What we need to live comfortably

School
Books
Ideas
What we need to make it to the future

Appreciation
Happiness
Patience
What we need to live in the present

Love
Friends
Family
What we need to be happy

Viewing the sunset
Stopping to smell the roses
What we need is to live rather than just merely exist

MEANING OF HAPPINESS
By Natasha Boateng-Wilson

Why can't people ever find happiness? Why is happiness such an unattainable thing? How do we gain happiness? Is there a formula? Is there a mathematical equation that balances all the different aspects and emotions of life, resulting in complete and total bliss? If there is such a formula, how do I find it? Is there a map out there that will lead me to discover the secrets of happiness? Am I supposed to go to my doctor and say, "Hey Doc, I am so unhappy all the time, it's becoming a struggle to put a smile on my face," and expect him to come with medication for me? "Oh yea, all you need is to take two doses of happy a day for three months and you'll be good to go!" As if it were that easy!

They always say, "just think of the positives in your life, and you'll be happy." What about those who have few positives in comparison to the negatives? How do they find happiness? It'll be almost impossible to see past all the negativity that fogs their eyes like an irremovable stain. What of all the others who have never felt happiness? What do they do? Those who know of nothing but misery and pain. How do they open themselves and learn to release all the pain and heartache? What of those who once knew what happiness was, and what it meant to them, but now cannot even begin to define it?

And what even is the definition of happiness? According to the dictionary, the word 'happy' has a lot of meanings, but the most notable one says, characterized by or indicative of pleasure, contentment, or joy. Is that what happiness is for everyone? Or is being happy sort of like being on a drug where everyone experiences different effects? I used to think it was impossible for someone to feel completely unhappy. I always believed that no matter what, someone can find a reason to smile, a reason to live.

Now, I understand that while there may be a reason to smile, and a reason to live, it doesn't mean it's easy to smile or to continue living. Someone may be smiling and have the air of a "free-spirit" but those may be acts of concealment. An act put on to hide the pain and misery. This is a much harder task to complete than discovering the meaning of happiness. Feigning happiness. One might ask, "why would someone fake happiness?" Honestly, I don't know. I can only say that in my experience, one hopes that by feigning the happiness they so desire, they can one day feel true happiness.

FRO-YO

By Celestre Blodgett

I think it's the biggest fad since Webkinz
Stores are popping up on every block
But my guess is that in a few years
The owners will be in for a shock

Till then, however
I might as well delight
In the frozen treat of our generation
And describe the delectable sight

Creamy greens, pinks, whites, and multicolored concoctions
Flow from whirring machines
To properly fill the cup is a longed-for skill
You are lucky if it doesn't get on your jeans

Next, to the topping station
Columns and rows full of every texture and taste
Crushed candy bars, gummies, cereal, nuts, fruit, and more
You pile on the goodies and to the register you make haste

The yogurt is weighed and bought by the ounce
Don't get too embarassed if yours weighs more than your friends'
Finally it's time to indulge
So smooth, so delicious your mood instantly ascends

The combo of the toppings and yogurt is just perfect
Crunch, chew, taste, indulge
It can be as healthy or unhealthy as you want
But people say yogurt is better than ice cream to beat the bulge

This craze is fashionable and hip
But, just like every novelty in this faced paced, wasteful reality
It will lose its shine and polish
And disappear, swallowed by the world's harsh brutality

THANK YOU, DICKINSON'S RIBBONS, FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS!

MANY THANKS TO THE PRODUCERS OF "TAKE'14"

Thank you to all the staff who made this publication of "Take '14" possible. I would especially like to thank my "right-paw" man, Tyler Armey, who can always be counted on to make every print deadline on time. Thank you, Tyler, for being an awesome Editor-in-Chief. I wish you the best in your new endeavor in the State Student Council. Thank you, Julie Bardon, for being always reliable and for completing the biggest section of the book on time. I also want to thank you for your beautiful design sense and Senior Class page layouts. You have a natural publishing artistic sense. Thank you, Natalie Phelps, for our first ever yearbook videos. We learned a lot about copyright and the internet, and I thank you for the patience in trying to make it happen successfully. Thank you, Katie McKeon, for putting together our sports section. I know gathering photos and stats from all of our co-op teams is difficult, but you did it without complaint. I would also like to thank Arianna Muhlidis for taking many photos this year for both the high school and middle school. Thanks to you we were never short on photos. Many thanks to all the staff for all your hard work. This book could not be completed without all of you working as a team, and I am happy we had such a great staff this year who worked together to meet the deadlines. Great job, yearbook staff! You have made a book that you should be very proud of.

Thank you Editors!

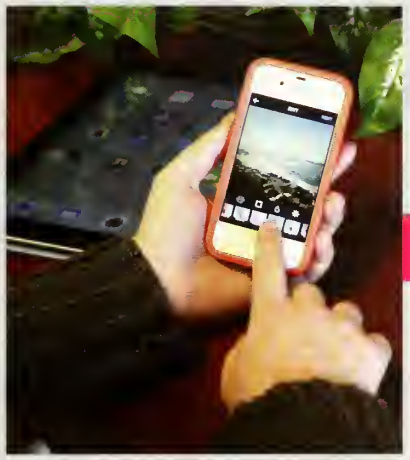
DENVER QUARTERBACK PEYTON MANNING put together one of the greatest seasons in NFL history. Manning finished with 5,477 yards passing and 55 touchdowns, both NFL single-season records.



RESEARCH SHOWED teen usage of Facebook was decreasing, as kids continued to migrate toward other social networks like Twitter, Instagram and Snapchat.

IN EARLY JANUARY, much of the country from the central and upper Midwest to the Northeast and into the South was struck by a polar vortex – a blast of dense, frigid polar air. The polar vortex lasted nearly a week and caused record low temps that created the coldest blast of air in 20 years.

YEARBOOK 3D

NELSON MANDELA
1918-2013

NELSON MANDELA, who worked to end racial segregation called apartheid in South Africa, died at age 95. Mandela spent 27 years in prison for conspiracy, and when freed, helped to lead his country to equality and served as South Africa's president from 1994-1999.

CELEBRITY DEATHS

FANS WERE SHOCKED and saddened by celebrity deaths during the year. Paul Walker (pictured), star of the "Fast & Furious" movies, was killed in a car crash. Other celebs who died included Cory Monteith, who played Finn on the TV show "Glee," actor Philip Seymour Hoffman and rock star Lou Reed.

SAN FRANCISCO WAS SAVED from the Penguin and Riddler on Nov. 15 when Miles Scott, 5, was granted his wish by the Make A Wish Foundation. With his leukemia in remission, Miles became Batkid and joined a life-size Batman to battle the villains across the city. Hundreds of volunteers made the event happen.

THE MARVEL SUPER HERO UNIVERSE continued to be as popular as ever. "Iron Man 3" was the highest grossing movie of 2013, and "Thor: The Dark World" was a huge hit in the fall. "Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D." was one of the highest-rated new shows on TV.

A RUSSIAN RESEARCH SHIP got stuck in ice off Antarctica, and after ships from Australia and China tried to free them, the 52 passengers on board were rescued by helicopter after 10 days. The crew stayed with the ship, which was on a mission to study global warming.

FLORIDA STATE'S KELVIN BENJAMIN caught a touchdown pass from Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Jameis Winston with 13 seconds left, which allowed the Seminoles to defeat Auburn, 34-31, in college football's BCS National Championship Game. Florida State fell behind 21-3 in the first half before rallying to win.

THE AFFORDABLE CARE ACT, known to many as Obamacare, launched in October, only to be stalled by a poorly functioning website. Officials scrambled to fix the problems, since Americans had until March 31 to sign up for a health care plan if they didn't have one, or they would be fined.

THE SEATTLE SEAHAWKS DOMINATED Super Bowl XLVIII at MetLife Stadium in New Jersey, defeating the Denver Broncos 43-8. The game featured Seattle's league-best defense against Denver's top-rated offense led by quarterback Peyton Manning, but the game turned into a mismatch as the Seahawks raced to a 22-0 halftime lead. The victory was the first Super Bowl win in franchise history for Seattle.

Your Family Loves You!

LOVE,
Mom, Dad, and Ali

CAROLINE DELANEY

May you always show courage to take risks.
Reach for the stars, and if you should fall, dust yourself off and try to reach again.
Stay true to yourself, trust your instincts, and make sure you say what's in your heart.
Be kind to others but, foremost, be kind to you

Love you,
Mom

The Movie

If your life was a movie, what would you title it?

"Turning the Page" - Kelsey Book

"Whatever Forever" - Katie Canavan

"A Long Story for a Short Kid" - Jon Vanderburgh

"How to Survive with Nothing but Cats & Pizza" - Rachel Langhill

If you could "re-shoot" scenes, what would you do differently?

"I 'd redo freshman year and try to have more fun." - Jess Mulhearn

"I'd change many times I could and do more for people." - Natasha Boateng

"I'd be more involved. I really enjoyed High School once I started to be." - Baylee Kimbar

"Not a lot. I've learned from my mistakes. Maybe just to not stress over small stuff." - Olivia Paige

Seniors reflect on their time in WB

Of My Life

"To become successful. To work on life goals." - Spiro Perdikomatis

"It would follow the challenges of an average senior during their last year." -Sarah Novia

What is your movie's plot? What does it focus on?

"How big brothers get along!" - Ben Saposnik

"The journey to get to the point of everything becoming good." - Wes Falzone

Where do you want the movie to go? What's your picture-perfect ending?

"It's not written yet! I want to be successful and happy down the road." - Olivia Paige

"To get a job in criminal justice and have a family." - Makayla Michalowski

"I would like to be a singer!" - Marianna Managiotidis

COURAGE...

.... By definition, is the ability to do something that is frightening. Being on the big screen takes courage for many, and some would never be able to do it. At West Boylston, however, there are wild, proactive, outgoing, and wonderful people. They are the epitome of courage. No matter what, West Boylston students will rise to the occasion, fight for what's right, and shine like stars. Believe in yourselves. Be strong. Be courageous... If you do so, you could get well beyond the point of "Take 14" and end up standing on that Red Carpet at the Oscars because you made it.

It's time to shine.

...End scene.

.....Let the credits roll.
